

JORGE YAGÜE

Conductor

Recently awarded with 1st Prize at the Spanish Young Conductors Competition and the 2nd Prize at the Erich Bergel II International Conducting Competition, Jorge Yagüe (Madrid, 1996) is making his debut this season 2024/25 with Musikkollegium Winterthur, Bilbao Symphony Orchestra, State Philharmonic Târgu Mures, Symphonieorchester St. Gallen, Pazardjik Symphony Orchestra, or Principality of Asturias Symphony Orchestra, among others. He has been just invited to conduct Tonhalle Orchester Zürich for Paavo Järvi masterclass this upcoming May.

For the next two seasons, Yagüe has been appointed Assistant conductor of the Orquesta Sinfónica de Castilla y León and their maestro Thierry Fischer.

Furthermore, he serves as Chief and Artistic Conductor of the León Youth Orchestra (Joven Orquesta Leonesa) since 2019, and under his guidance the orchestra has become one of the most sought-after by young Spanish musicians.

At the age of 28, Yagüe has already worked with the Spanish Radio Television Orchestra, Orchestra Senzaspine, Spanish National Youth Orchestra, Extremadura Symphony Orchestra, Hradec-Králové Philharmonie, Konstanz Südwestdeutsche Philharmonie or Berner Symphonieorchester in countries as Czech Republic, Germany, United States, Austria, Greece, Switzerland, Italy, Portugal, Romania or Sweden.

Jorge is currently based in Zürich, where he has been studying at the Zürcher Hochschule der Künste (ZHdK) since 2022 under the guidance of Prof. Christoph Mathias Müller and Johannes Schlaefli, and where nowadays he also serves as the Assistant of the Conducting Studio. Previously, he took his first steps as a conductor at the Katarina Gurska School of Music (Madrid) in the class of Prof. Borja Quintas, and broadened his education with Mtro. Daniele Gatti at the Chigiana Academy (Siena). During the last years, Yagüe has been very influenced by maestri Pablo González, Nuno Coelho and Álvaro Albiach, working with them frequently as their main assistant conductor.

Yagüe has had the opportunity to receive lessons from renowned maestri such as Ole Kristian Ruud, Marin Alsop or Nicolas Pasquet 2023.

Jorge is part of the roster of Musiespaña for representation in Spain and Portugal.
